

AGED SUITOR BURED; HUNT FOR MURDERER

Died From Blow on Head,
Decides Jury—Corpse
Tied to Sapling.

DOVER, Del., July 16.—The body of aged suitor William Williams, the sixty-four-year-old farmer of Maryland, who was lynched by outraged neighbors, because he intended to marry thirteen-year-old Elizabeth Walls, was buried today in Camden, near here. A great crowd of morbidly curious persons followed the remains to the Odd Fellows cemetery.

Following an investigation by the coroner's jury a verdict was returned that Williams was killed by a blow on the head by some person unknown. The dead man's three sons and two daughters were not present at the inquest.

The authorities of Queen Anne county, Md., as well as those of Delaware, have started a searching investigation to discover by whose hands Williams died. It had been practically established that the aged suitor was killed elsewhere than where the body was found.

The sapling on which it hung loosely by a slack rope was not such as a suicide would have chosen, and it is believed that the body was brought there after death in an effort to hide the crime.

FRAUD CHARGE LAID TO WHEAT BROKERS

Principals in New York Concern
Flee in Fear From Postal Inquiry.

A fraud order was issued today by the Postoffice Department against the Mutual Grain Company, its officers and agents, 70, 80, and 82 Wall street, New York city.

It is stated that the case is based on the complaint of Mrs. J. E. Holden, of Columbus, Ind., who claims that the company misappropriated $2.75, a balance that she should have received, but which the company used to buy calls on May wheat for her account, the company later notifying her that all the money she had sent had been lost.

The business of the company was to deal in puts and calls on the wheat market, and they sent out glowing circular letters, showing the immense profits that might be made by any person who dealt in puts and calls, and requested that their clients send anywhere from $20 to $100 for such investment.

The inspector reports that the operators of the scheme left for parts unknown as soon as they discovered that the Postoffice Department was making an investigation of their business.

PREACHER SLAIN FOR OLD GRUDGE

Town Loafer Shoots Man Who as City Recorder Punished Him.

METUCHEN, July 16.—Inflamed because the prisoner had shot and killed former Recorder F. B. D. Prickett, a retired Methodist preacher and editor of the Metuchen Recorder, and barricaded himself in his house, pistol in hand, had held the entire town at bay, a mob yesterday afternoon made repeated efforts to wrest Archibald Heron from the policemen who were taking the slayer to the county jail at New Brunswick. Those who wished to dispose summarily of the slayer were beaten back, however, and he was hustled out of town and placed in jail.

The fury of the mob was increased by the knowledge that Heron had shot and killed Prickett because the editor, when he was recorder, had sent Heron to prison for ten days on a conviction of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. It was recalled that Heron often had threatened to get even by killing Prickett. When those threats were made, however, little attention was paid to them, because although Heron was a town loafer, it was not thought he would resort to murder. Prickett knew of the threats and seemingly he regarded them as lightly as did others, for he made no effort to protect himself against the man who in the end took his life.

Heron for two years had brooded over his imprisonment, but not until yesterday did he work himself to a pitch to do the shooting. The killing was done in front of the home of the victim's son, who saw the tragedy, but was powerless to prevent it. Then the slayer, frightened by seeing his victim fall dead, turned and ran three-quarters of a mile to his home. It was not until he had been informed that the townspeople would have him, dead or alive, that he consented to permit Chief of Police Fournat, at whom he fired several shots, to enter the house. Fournat seized him quickly and snatched the handcuffs on him.

CRANFORDS GIVEN $150,000 CONTRACT

The Commissioners today awarded a contract for street paving work, involving an expenditure of approximately $150,000, to the Cranford Paving Company. It was the division of a similar contract last year between the Cranford Paving Company and the Brennan Construction Company which led to the charge of favoritism by the latter.

A contract for asphalt block paving of approximately $40,000 was awarded to the Washington Asphalt Block and Tile Company. Contracts for street grading were awarded as follows: Albemarle street, Forty-first street, Rittenhouse street, and Western avenue to G. B. Mullin.

Minnesota avenue to the W. F. Brainerd Company.
Kearney street to Stutler & Ready.

THE NEXT MEAL.

"Can't you help me, sir?" asked the beggar on the street to the passerby. "I don't know where my next meal is coming from."

"Neither do I," said the man addressed, passing on; "our girl left this morning, too!"—Yonkers Statesman.

QUOTING SCRIPTURE.

"Why, away back in ancient days gossiped talked just as they do today."

"How do you know?"

"Why, the Bible speaks about the Gossips and what they did."—Los Angeles Express.
